LOCAL BRIEFS.—

The Legislature convenes to-morrow The old Baptist Grove is being fenced in.

Lieut. Gov. Brogden reported at the National last evening.

Maj. J. T. Littlejohn, of Granville, is in attendance upon the Supreme Court.

E. W. Poul, Esq., of Johnston, honored our sanctum with a visit yesterday.

Col. S. D. Pool, the Reading Clerk of the House, reached this city by last evening's train.

The case of the colored men charged with homicide comes up before Judge Watts to-day.

The macadamizing of Fayetteville street is progressing slowly. This is certainly a good move.

John Q. Kirkland, a leading and prominent citizen of Orange county is registered at the Yarbrough.

Several police arrests were made on Sunday, among them was one of our good looking young city gents for fast riding on Davis street.

Maj. W. J. Yates, of the Charlotte Democrat, with his two daughters, passed through the city yesterday en route home from a brief visit to Fayetteville.

Special attention is directed to the advertisement of road wagons of all sizes, offered for sale by Wayne Alcott, the agent of the manufacturer for this city.

The mail and passenger train on the North Carolina Railroad was delayed till 8 o'clock yesterday, caused by the breaking of some of the machinery about the engine.

Notice is given elsewhere that an application will be made to the Legislature of North Carolina for a charter to incorporate a Fire Insurance Company.

The local of the Wilmington Journal forgot to mention the advent of the new year, and the Robesonian comes out with the last two issues dated "1872." (Note.—James, this is a goak.)

A special meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held tonight for the purpose of re-organizing.
See the call elsewhere. All the young men and citizens are earnestly solicited to attend.

The attention of the city police is called to the fact that much disorder is prevalent in that part of the city known as "Winter's Row." On Sunday evening several fights occurred on this delectable row, and no police about to restrain the disorder. The citizens in the vicinity are complaining.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The Court met at 9 o'clock. The Criminal Docket was resumed and the following cases disposed of:

Austin Blake, Abram Houghton, and W.
H. Gaserick. All bastardy cases.

a deadly weapon; convicted. Judgement of the Court reserved.

Willis McNeil and the other against Loveless Purser, the defendants submitted. Judgment of the Court that they each be confined at hard labor in the State Prison for three years each.

State against William Mitchell, alias Chick Boots, assault and battery. Convicted. Judgment reserved.

State vs. Frank Freeman, larceny.
Convicted. Judgment reserved.

ARRIVAL OF FINE MULES.—A car load of fine Kentucky Mules have arrived at the stables of Messrs. Dunn & Co., consigned to W. T. Rogers, Esq.
They are well broken and will be sold low. Call early.

SUPREME COURT.—This body met at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, all the Justices present.

The following cases were called up and disposed of:

E. O. Macy, Administrator vs. State of North Carolina, from Wake; referred to clerk to find the facts. A. M.
Lewis for plaintiff, Attorney General Hargrove for the State.

Duncan McPayden et al. vs. John T. Council, et al. from Bladen; continued for issues. B. T. C. Fuller for plaintiff, W. D. J. Pickett vs. J. S. Sutherland, Administrator, et al. from Duplin.

Smith & Strong, and W. A. Allen for plaintiffs, and W. A. Wright for defendants. Referred to Clerk of Duplin to state account. Administrator made party defendant.

Henry Melvin et al. vs. James K.
Melvin et al. from Bladen. R. H. & C.
C. Lyon for plaintiff, and W. S. & D.
J. Devane for defendants. Case argued.

Thomas McDowell, Administrator, vs. William H. Wicks, from Bladen.
Busbee & Busbee for plaintiff, no counsel for defendant. Case argued.

State vs. Leonard Pepper, from Robeson. Attorney General Hargrove for the State, no counsel for the defendant.
Motion to dismiss for want of appeal bond.

E. J. Larkins vs. Patrick Murphy, Administrator, from New Hanover. M.
Lomon for plaintiff, W. S. & D. J.
Devane for defendant. Case argued.

Weith & Arens, vs. the city of Wilmington, from New Hanover. Robert Stratford, and Wright and Standman, for plaintiffs, M. London for defendant.
Pending the argument of this case, the Court adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning when it will be resumed by London, Esq., for the defendant.

A FOX CHASE.—Sunday, a tame fox at the City Hotel escaped from his cage, and attempted to make his way to his own native wilds by flight, but all the men, boys and dogs in the vicinity joined in to intercept his foxish and quite an exciting chase ensued. Policeman Farriss made the first grab for the neat when the fox relieved him of a small portion of his middle finger. The policeman thus resisted, called to his aid help, making the usual signal on a plank with his "billy." No valiant policeman was near to hasten to the relief of this distressed companion, but the difficult was surmounted by the timely appearance on the field of contest of the distinguished "purps" Fido Bryant and Jack Woodson, who succeeded in bringing Reynard to bay.

CUMULATIVE SUFFRAGE.—We call the attention of those that favor the adoption of this system of Suffrage in this city to the fact that the Legislature convenes to-morrow, and it is high time that action in regard to the matter should be taken. We again suggest a Citizens' Meeting in order that a proper memorial may be proposed, asking the General Assembly to so amend the charter of the city. The advantages accruing to property-holders from the adoption of such an amendment are obvious and require no discussion. We sincerely hope the matter will at once be acted on.

SUNDAY.—The day was beautiful and the weather delightful. Divine services were held at every church in the city, and the congregations at all, as usual large. Rev. W. H. Bobbitt, the presiding elder of this Conference District, occupied the pulpit of the Person street Methodist Church, (which has been vacant since the commencement of the year) in the forenoon, and the Edenton street Church at night.

We regret to say that much drunkenness and general disorder was observable in some portions of the city on this holy day, and though several, not as many police arrests made as there should have been.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Stephen Wood-wine, the great mogul of hog thieves, was arrested on Saturday night, charged with stealing from Martha Price and others. He was committed to jail in default of $500 bail to await the arrival of his witnesses, when he will have an early hearing.

William Mitchell, alias Chick Boots, one of the most turbulent characters of Winter's Row, for assault and battery on Luke Williams was committed to jail in default of $500 bail. Luke was too badly beaten to make his appearance.

JNO. C. PALMER.—Everybody that knows Raleigh knows "Uncle" Johnny Palmer, the Watch Maker, Jeweler, &c.
"Uncle" Johnny advertises in to day's News his large and extensive stock of jewelry, gold, silver and plated ware, which he offers as low as the lowest.
Parties from a distance who have fine watches to mend, can with the utmost confidence, trust their work with "Uncle" Johnny as he is the "very soul of honor."

LOOKING FOR FARM LABORERS.—Mr.
John J. Battle, an extensive and energetic farmer of Edgecombe, and Mr.
Williams, Superintendent of Mr. William S. Battle's farm, in the same county, are now in this city, looking for cotton hands. These gentlemen inform us there is great complaint among the farmers of that section, as but few have been fortunate enough to secure sufficient labor for the ensuing year.

COAL.—Mr. James A. Porter will have on hand, on the 18th inst., a lot of Chatham coal, well screened, as well as a lot of oak and seasoned pine wood, which he will dispose of on liberal terms.
Call at the yard on Lane street, just in rear of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind Institution.

MEMBERS ARRIVING.—Col. Allen, Senator from Duplin, and Mr. Outlaw, Representative from Dublin, arrived Sunday morning.

Mr. Hill, principal Doorkeeper of the House, arrived yesterday.

FIRE.—The fire alarm sounded last night at 7 o'clock, and promptly the several companies of the City Fire Brigade were at the scene of action—a burning chimney at the Yarbrough House.

The report of the fire at the Yarborough House created quite a consternation among the business men on Fayetteville street, who rushed to the scene like so many wild men. We saw the city bankers out, and judging from the quick, elastic step of the venerable Chas.
Dewey no one would have considered him the oldest bank officer in the State.

Jno. G. Williams, Esq., the President of the State National, was as active as a school boy in a rabbit chase. Col. Anderson, of the Citizens, we did not see, but suppose that he was about looking not only youthful, but well fixed up, as we were mistaken for him more than once.

When the chimney ceased to burn, and the danger declared to be over, it was a pleasant sight to see so many faces wearing smiles where they rarely ever appear.

We forgot to mention that our political editor, who occupies a room in the third story, succumbed to the excitement of the moment and acted well the part of a skinned man at a fire by throwing his trunk "out and carefully bringing down his inkstand, scissors, and a half dozen old exchanges.
Nobody hurt and no damage done.

KISSING.—A young lady of Maysville objected to her sweetheart kissing her recently, because the Observer and Reporter was in the room.—Courier Journal.

It had been our paper she would have smiled sweetly, placed her lily white hand on her soft cheek, and remarked, Plant it right here, my love.— Durham Tobacco Plant.

If it had been our paper, she would have said, yes, kiss me as often as you please and let the Banner tell it to the world that it was so sweet, and I don't care who knows it.—*Princeton

When the kissing occurred, the young lady posted a Sentinel in the Southside to see that it was well and warmly done —for says she, with a sly wink at the Sentinel, "He knows all about it—he has been there."—Southside Sentinel.

The Sentinel is mistaken; the kissing did not occur. But, had we been there it should certainly have gone on, and the Reporter could never have known the number of Times.—Danville (Va.) Times.

Our neighbor of the Times is mistaken—the kissing did occur—but had we been there—Oh! ye Gods and little fishes. We would not have known when to stop gathering the nectar from those coral lips, and looking at the angel wings which were spread in those clear blue eyes; for no Record of the time would we have kept.—Reidsville Record.

The Record is mistaken. The kissing did not occur, because the young lady objected. But if it had occurred and our reporter had witnessed the operation, the blushing damsel would have doubtless exclaimed—"Don't carry the News to mother!" Whereupon ye local would soon have absquatulated.

THE PEABODY FUND.—The following inquiry concerning the distribution of the Peabody fund has been sent us by a correspondent. Doubtless those in charge can give the necessary information. We know nothing about it.

Mr. Editor:—I learn from the Report of the Superintendent of Education, that the Trustees of the Peabody Fund, do not give aid to Colleges, nor to private or denominational schools, nor to any that do not have one hundred pupils, with an average attendance of eighty-five. I should be pleased if some one would inform the public upon what grounds Mars Hill College received $300, Cane Creek $300 and Bush Hill $300. Were they not denominational?
Did either of them have an average attendance of eighty-five.

TRUTH.

PERSONAL.—Col. Robert Strange, Major Duncan Devane and Mauger London, Esq., of the Wilmington Bar, are in the city in attendance upon the session of the Supreme Court, also Col. B. Fuller, of Fayetteville.

is on a visit to the city.

A. M. Kirkland, of New York, but formerly of Hillsboro, was in the city yesterday.

Col. John U. Kirkland, of Orange, and Maj. James T. Littlejohn and Russell H. Kingsbury, of Oxford, are at the Yarbrough House.

Col. E. R. Stanley, President of the Atlantic Road, reached the city yesterday evening.

MORE OF THE ROBESON COUNTY OUT-LAWS.—SHOOTING OF FLOYD OXENDINE BY JOHN LOCKLEAR, ETC.—From the Wilmington Star of the 12th inst. we get the following particulars of which the above caption speaks. We are at a loss to comprehend the action of the Marion county authorities:

"From a gentleman just returned from Robeson county we learn that a Sheriff's posse, consisting of William Wilson, the player of the notorious outlaw, Andrew Strong, Floyd Oxendine, who also figured somewhat in that tragic occurrence and William McClenney, went across the line into Marion county, S.
C., some time last week, in pursuit of Stephen Lowrey and John Locklear, the former being the only remaining member of the band of outlaws of which the famous Henry Berry Lowrey was once the leading spirit, and the latter being accused of the murder of the McLeod family in Cumberland county, some years ago.

Mr. Wilson and the others returned on Tuesday, and reported that they came up with John Locklear in Marion county, Lowrey having disappeared before their arrival. As the posse neared the house, Mr. Wilson called to Locklear to come out, when the latter replied by threatening to shoot him if he did not leave. The party continued to advance, however, and had come within a few hundred yards of the house, when Locklear fired upon them, shooting Floyd Oxendine and wounding him severely, though not dangerously, in the neck, breast and hand, while, in the midst of the confusion which ensued the mur-derer escaped through the back door and beat a hasty retreat. Mr. Wilson and party followed the fugitive, who was making his way towards his old haunts in Robeson county, and finally succeeded in getting a warrant for his arrest from a magistrate be the name of Lee, which was placed in the hands of a special deputy. After a vigorous pursuit the party finally came up with Locklear and succeeded in effecting his arrest, the special deputy formally delivering the prisoner into the hands of the posse from Robeson county. Elated at their success in securing at least one of the villainous desperadoes of whom they were in pursuit, Mr. Wilson and his friends started homeward with their prisoner, who had been securely ironed when, as they had reached a point within about two miles of the line, they were approached and halted by Sheriff Berry, of Marion county, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff A. P. Briggman, formerly of this city, who proceeded to arrest the whole party and made them retrace their steps to Marion C. H.— Here they were arraigned before Justice Lee, the same magistrate who had issued the warrant for the arrest of Locklear, when the latter was unconditionally turned loose, while Mr. Wilson and his party were only released on the payment to the Sheriff and magistrate of the sum of $641.90."

EDITORIAL GLEANINGS.

CHAPLAIN HILL.—The Wilmington Journal of Saturday, contains a long and well written editorial correspondence from Chapel Hill, detailing, the vandalism destruction of the University, the decay of the buildings, the abuse of the libraries and halls, and the gross neglect of President Solomon Pool, whose conduct exhibits unaccountable carelessness and negligence in not protecting the property committed to his charge. The letter gives full particulars of the ruins to be seen at every turn. We will give extracts from this painful statement hereafter.

HISTORY OF THE STATE.—The Charlotte Observer has a very sensible and practical editorial on the above subject, and advocates an appropriation by the Legislature of an adequate sum for the purpose of accomplishing the object. That paper suggests that a Committee be appointed by the Legislature to take charge of the matter, and to select one or more good writers who possess energy as well as talent for writing, and general fitness for the accomplishment of the work.

We hope the Legislature will take hold of the matter, for it is important and urgent.

HARMONY.—The Hickory Tavern Eagle don't like the cry of Harmony. Hear it:

"A number of our exchanges are crying Harmony! Harmony!! Harmony!!! What's wrong? The 'Hush Game' has been played too long already. If there is anything rotten in the Democratic party, let it out. If it is hazardous to the party to discuss the Merriam-Vance-Senatorial-Imbroglio and the Public Printing, all we've got to say, is the party is in a bad fix, and needs a little ventilation. Don't be alarmed, gentlemen."

The position of the RALEIGH NEWS and Wilmington Journal seems to have been misunderstood by several of our State exchanges. We did not think the prolongation of a personal controversy through the press would be beneficial to the Conservative party. With great deference to the opinion of the Eagle, we still think there is no political principle at stake, it is hazardous to the party for its leading public men to engage in personal wranglings through the newspapers. We consider that it is the duty of all opposed to Radicalism to bury personal strife and animosities, in a common effort for the preservation of the harmony and organization of the Conservative party.

It is the duty of the press to condemn the wrong, even in their own party, to point out errors, if any have been committed, to rebuke the spirit of insubordination and disorganization, to enter its protest against bolting and personal wrangling, to drive out the spirit of discord and disaffection, and to strive to preserve the unity, integrity and welfare of the party.

THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

We publish below an article from the Hickory Tavern Eagle, in regard to the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad. Since that article appeared, there has been another postponement of the sale for another sixty days, which gives a little breathing spell to the State, before the sacrifice of her interests is made.

From the account given below, it will be seen that the Attorney General, Hon. William M. Shipp, appeared for the State and Judge Merrimon for the Southern Security Company, when the motion was made before Judge Dick, at chambers, to enjoin the sale which had been ordered under a decree of the Circuit Court. We do not know whether the Southern Security Company has any connection with the Pennsylvania Central or not, but the charge is made in some of the newspapers.

The Editor of the Hickory Tavern Eagle is a very reliable gentleman, and we take it his information comes from responsible sources. It will not do to sacrifice two millions of dollars for a debt of two hundred thousand—if there is any possible way to avoid it.

Judge Cloud, at chambers in this city, on last Friday, after argument by counsel, decided adversely to the claims of Col. S. McD. Tate as President of the Road, and in favor of Dr. W. H. Howerton.

Col. Tate claimed under the Warren-Jarvis Legislative appointment, and Howerton under the appointment of Gov. Caldwell. An appeal has been taken to the Supreme Court, and there is a probability that a decision will be made at the present term of that tribunal.

The Hickory Tavern Eagle commented as follows, soon after the first postponement of the sale:

The sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad is postponed for 60 days. A motion to enjoin the sale was agreed to, before Judge Dick at chambers, last week, by Attorney Shipp for the State, and Judge Merrimon for the Southern Security Company. Both lawyers agreed to the postponement. We don't know much about railroad rings, but if there is not something infernally rotten about this road we are badly deceived. The fraud committee appointed by the Legislature will not find it however. It is better the ring should have $200,000, than the road—worth several millions—the iron alone might be sold and pay the debt 5 times over. It is shameful that the road should pass into the hands of an unscrupulous ring for a mere song. It will be a reproach to the State and the Legislature, and they will find out when it is too late. Let the rottenness be exposed, but redeem the road first. Suppose there is fraud, in the management of the road and the legislative committee so finds, of what avail will it be to the Legislature? The road is to be sold under a decree of court, and no amount of fraud in the possession of a legislative committee can prevent it. If the investigation has been set on foot, with a view of eliciting facts to influence an appropriation whereby the road has been redeemed, well enough. However, if such policy be necessary to secure the much needed legislation in behalf of the road, the whole thing will prove a fizzle. The Committee will not get the facts, as we believe. If there is any combination or ring, the head centre is in New York. The combining, conspiring and confederating has been there. The conspirators are not known. We know there is a Southern Security Company, whose headquarters is probably in New York, and that they have, by fair or foul means, got possession of $200,000 mortgage bonds on our road issued but to pay for blasting a few rocks in the neighborhood of Asheville. We know that more than two millions of dollars of property is about to be sacrificed to pay this debt. We know that but few people appear to know or care what becomes of the road. We know that Mr. McAden has one or two deeds for the road, Sheriff's deeds. We know that Mr. McCorkle, of Newton, has claims under a similar title. We know that Mr. McAden has two suits now pending in Catawba court, for the possession of the road. We know that Dr. Mott claims to be President. We know that Colonel Tate has similar claims, and until recently that Dr. Howerton claimed to be President.

We know that Littlefield and Swenson and Woodin and others have been recently connected and interested in the road, and this is about all we do know and can find out. But we believe there has been some first class swindling and rascality at the bottom of the whole concern.

THE OTHER SIDE.

After the above article in relation to the Western North Carolina Road was in type, the Asheville Pioneer was received, giving the other side of the question, and contending that it is to the interests of the people of the State, and especially those of Western North Carolina, for the Road to be sold under the mortgage.

The Pioneer is a Radical paper, and its arguments would have had more weight with us if it had viewed matters from a non-partisan stand-point. The burden of its song is to show that the Republican party of North Carolina will be injured by the action of Gov. Caldwell, in having the sale postponed. As the Pioneer, in its comments on the subject, seems to be influenced chiefly by a desire to advance the interest of the Radical party, we should regard its opposition to the postponement of the sale as a Radical measure but for the fact that the Asheville Citizen, the Conservative organ of the Eighth Congressional District, is also in favor of the sale.

Speaking of the action of the Governor, the Pioneer says: "This interference of Gov. Caldwell took every one West of the Blue Ridge by surprise, and filled the public mind with painful apprehensions for the future of this portion of North Carolina. Various surmises are afloat in regard to the impelling motive of Gov. Caldwell, in the perilous action he has taken."

The Pioneer then proceeds to give the reasons why the sale should take place. It facts as stated by that paper be true, a different phase is put upon the matter. At the same time, we are still of opinion that the sale ought to have been postponed, in order to give an opportunity to look into the transaction, and see if there is no possible way to prevent the sacrifice of the interest of North Carolina. We look to those interests alone, and not to the interests of any individual or corporation. We believe there is some fraud connected with the sale of the Western Road, and we are in favor of ferreting it out, before the property is sold. We are anxious for the people of Western North Carolina to have their Railroad built, and we would advocate any practicable scheme for the completion of the Western Road, provided it could be done without detriment to the State.

We know nothing of the ability of the Southern Security Company to carry out their pecuniary obligations, and we should greatly regret to see a Road which cost the State six millions of dollars pass into the hands of any persons or bodies politic for a debt of two or three hundred thousand.

In order, however, to give the other side of the question, we make the following extracts from the Pioneer's article, before referred to:

"No one offers to deny, that there have been great irregularities and frauds in the management of the affairs of the Eastern Division of the Western North Carolina Road, and that the State and the private stockholders have been injured thereby. No one can deny that, by means of these irregular and fraudulent practices, certain parties have become the creditors of the corporation, whose demands, though insignificant as compared with the cost and value of the road, cannot be resisted and must be paid.

It is to the interest of the people of the whole State, and to none more than those inhabiting our sea-ports, to extend this road to connect with the Tennessee roads.

It is a matter of life and death to the counties west of the Blue Ridge that no obstacle should be thrown in the way of the speedy extension of the road, but that any and all means should be used to accomplish its construction.

For the good of the whole State, and in the full perception of the hopeless isolation without this road, the State ought to be, and the communities west of the Blue Ridge certainly are, willing to give away all the interest which the State has, to any party who will undertake and build the road. The parties into whose hands it is understood the road is likely to pass upon its being sold under the decree heretofore made, are able to build the road; they want to build it, and it is to their interest to build it.

It is their interest to build it because they own and control the Tennessee outlet of the road, and control the system of roads extending thence to the Mississippi; and they control the North Carolina outlets, extending to the tide water in this State and Virginia, and for want of this connection, they are now subjected to heavy freights on their goods, and their business, by a powerful Virginia rival, whose interest it is to stop the Western North Carolina Road at Old Fort, and prevent the opening of this through connection as a competing line with his.

Some of the largest contractors who have recently finished work on the Air Line Road are here, with their stock and their supplies laid in for the coming season, ready to go to work. The people hereabouts, who are familiar with all these facts, are upon a consideration of them, desirous to have the road sold. Not that it is the best thing that might be done; but that it seems to be the only thing which can be done to give us railroad facilities.

In this condition of public sentiment, the Republican party West is confronted with Governor Caldwell's interference in this Railroad suit."

Many of our merchants have been changing quarters the past week. The Good Templars number about 300 members.

Scaling has begun. The last theft we hear of is from the grainery of Mr. J. P. Causey, who resides on the southern suburbs. Last Wednesday night the thief or thieves, supposed to be negroes, broke into his grainery and stole a small lot of corn; the exact amount cannot be ascertained. They bursted open the main entrance to, and drew the staple of the grainery door. Negroes are "hard up," and during the winter they have to resort to stealing to secure a subsistence, and we hear of no little of this crime.

Tommy Garrett, a little urchin, has a little ox and a little cart, with which he hauls little loads of freight, &c., on the streets, and realizes some days the neat little sum of $2. This is what we call shrewdness.

Peter Ray, a deaf and dumb mute, who works in one of the spoke and handle factories, met with a serious and almost fatal accident last Thursday. While running a lathe, pieces of timber were bursted off by the saw and flew out, striking him in the face, near the left eye, and cutting several ugly gashes.

The erection of another tobacco warehouse is in contemplation.

S. C. Robinson's marble yard is now fixed up and ready for work.

It is a well known fact, established, that negroes are superstitious. In proof of this, a negro boy who had been sent out by his mistress for some wood, saw a ghost on the fire. The act of gathering up the wood the ghost gathered hold of him, and the poor wretch was so frightened that he lay down and yelled for life. The ghost became scared also, and left the boy to himself. His mistress hearing him bawling, rushed out to see what was the matter, and it took her some time to get the little fellow. He said "a ghost 'ad him," but the ghost proved to be human.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE TISSUE THAT FLESH ARE HEARD TO ARE NOT BUT A REMEDY FOR THE AFFECTIONS OF THE VEGETABLE KINGDOM. There is no doubt that for every disease there is an antidote in the vegetable kingdom. The antidotes were the victims of many and loathsome maladies, yet they found in the wilds of their forests remedies sure and powerful. Acting on this belief Dr. TUTT'S SARSAPARILLA AND QUINA'S LIGHT is offered to the public as a most highly concentrated vegetable compound, possessing extraordinary power for the cure of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Scrofula, Ulcers, Swelling of the Glands, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Liver Complaints, Secondary Syphilis, the effect of mercury, &c. It is a most powerful alterative and blood purifier, and at the same time so harmless that it may be used by all.

Watch out for Chills and Fever, and prepare the system for resisting its attack by using Dr. TUTT'S Liver Pills.

Tetter, Salt Rheum and All Skin Diseases cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

THE PEOPLE'S STAMP OF VALUE.

The Government Indorsement, which legalizes the sale of PLANTATION BITTERS, is not the only stamp affixed to that famous Vegetable Tonic. It bears, in addition, to that official sanction, the still more valuable stamp of public approbation. This inestimable voucher, that attests the efficacy of the Tonic, is the result of the following: For the first time before Congress thought of taxing proprietary medicines. It is unnecessary to repeat, in detail, the properties of this wonderful Vegetable Tonic. The best reference that can be made to those who have tried it as a remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, intermittent fevers, nervous debility, rheumatism, sea-sickness, low spirits or loss of vital power, will find Plantation Bitters has done for them, and be governed by the response they make to your inquiries.

BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS.

The Hon. James Iredell, late Governor of North Carolina, made an article possessing great value with regard to Beckwith's Pills. Dr. Beckwith's Anti-Dyspeptic Pills have been used in my family for the last large one—with the most beneficial effects. A number of my friends who have been afflicted with dyspepsia and other disorders of the stomach, have spoken to me in strong terms of the relief they experienced from this remedy. Beckwith's Pills for the last twenty years, justifies me in declaring that he would give no assurances of facts of his own experience, or of the testimonials of others, of which he was not perfectly confident, in which the public might not safely rely. JAS. IREDELL.

Prepared solely by the proprietor, E. R. BECKWITH, successor to Dr. Beckwith, Petersburg, Va., and for sale, at the reduced price of 25 cents per box, by all druggists. Jan-5-73

THE TENACITY OF TRUTH.

When a man becomes convinced, from long experience and observation, that a certain article possesses superior excellence as a medicine, not all the preposterous clamor of all the worthless nostrum vendors in the universe can shake their belief in its efficiency. Truth is a very tenacious thing, as these nostrums are beginning to displace the truth, and the truth is too firm a hold upon the popular esteem to be in the slightest degree effected by the cold water theories which the advertisers of fermented sops, "without a particle of alcohol," are so fond of launching against the old and tried. It is a pity that some description, viz: fine old stout, Croix, the most active and beneficial of all the medicinal beverages, which could possibly be adopted.

HELP FOR THE HOPELESS.

You are weak, debilitated, nervous, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is a balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinograd's? No? Then try it. It is a powerful remedy for your complaint be dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble. Vinograd's will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a general tonic refreshes the withered flower.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferro-Phosphated Elixir of Calisyra, made by Dr. Cassell, Hazard & Co., New York, is the most powerful and the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

The Charleston Courier says that on Tuesday the body of a copper-colored man was found on the road, about a mile above Edgemoor, on the North Eastern Railroad. An inquest was held and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts stated.

Says the Roanoke News of the 11th inst:

"On Wednesday last, as we learn from Sheriff Reid, a party of negroes, in the vicinity of Enfield, went out for a fox hunt; whether mounted or on foot he did not state. After roaming about for some time a fox was 'jumped,' and of course the excitement of a genuine chase began. In the general hubbub which ensued one negro, while getting hurriedly over a fence, struck his gun against the fence and caused a discharge of its contents into his body; or, as is the general impression, one of his companions, hearing a noise in the bushes, and seeing what he fancied to be a fox, fired, emptying his load into the body of the negro on the fence, killing him instantly.

A coroner was sent for, and an inquest held on Thursday; though we could not learn the verdict of the jury.

Railroad Accident.

FROM OUR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9, 1873.

Yesterday was quite a dull day in Congress. The words of Judge Thurman in the Senate that the Commissioners to be appointed to take testimony in the Louisiana and Arkansas investigation "should be of such a character as to command the confidence and respect of the country," even if not so intended, were an appeal for fairness and justice; at the same time they strongly implied a doubt that neither would be done. The corner stone of Radicalism is centralization, openly and boldly avowed, then why expect that any act of the President in that direction, no matter how much in violation of the Constitution, will meet with commendation on the hands of his friends? Those who expect that General Grant will not be sustained or that the people's wrongs will receive redress very much mistake the temper and intentions of our Radical brethren.

CREDIT MOBILIER.

The examination of John B. Alley was continued yesterday in open session, but the expected controversy between him and the fiery McComb did not come off; to day, however, it is very likely that the "Massachusetts vituperator," as McComb calls Alley, will receive a combing during the cross-questioning from the late Marylander. He promises shortly to offer letters from Ames, not yet made public, which will terribly damage quite a number of reputations, both in and out of Congress, hitherto unsuspected. The cue of the Radical press of this city is to try and impeach McComb's veracity so as to save those members of Congress whose garments just now seem to be somewhat soiled. In doing this Ames gets some hard raps. The Chronicle, in defending his contradictions, says: "His conflict with McComb led him to admit and specious explanations with that gentleman." Not very high-toned in the Pacific Railroad Mogul, truly. It will be noticed that in some cases members of Congress paid cash for the Credit Mobilier stock that they bought; these can make a better showing, but those who bought this stock at par ($100 per share) to be paid out of the dividends and not in cash, will have a jolly time in explaining matters, when it is known that one of these dividends is eighty per cent. Of course the public will believe that Mr. Oakes Ames sold stock on these terms merely out of friendship for his brother members. I know of a good many poor devils here who would dearly loved to have bought some Credit Mobilier stock on those terms, but they had no vote in Congress, and it did not come their way. The shrewdness of Mr. Ames in selling his stock will shield him from the penalty of trying to bribe his fellow members, but the public will have their own opinion of him and those who do not explain most clearly, as some already have done. This expose will, in all probability, result in the Government saving $5,000,000, which the Union Pacific Railroad owes as interest. For some time past the company have been trying to be relieved of its payment, and when we recognize its immense power, it is more than probable it would have succeeded. The resolution of Hon. Sam. J. Randall, of Pennsylvania, passed by the House, authorizing the Department of Justice to institute suit to recover the amount due the United States was yesterday referred to the Attorney General by the President. Mr. Randall, ever the foe of corruption and jobbery, and always on the alert to expose it, was on hand with his resolution in the nick of time so as to give a terrific blow to this gigantic corporation now reeling under the odium that attaches to its offspring the Credit Mobilier. Able lawyers will prosecute the suit on behalf of the Government, and I see no reason why the railroad should not only be made to pay its just debts, but the Credit Mobilier to disgorge its ill gotten plunder.

This is strictly a HOME LIFE COMPANY.

Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every SUBSTANTIAL BENEFIT that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions.

Another important factor to be considered is, that the Wilmington Life has thus far obtained a VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that State.

These unquestionable facts should commend this company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life Premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plithoric capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should insure at home, this were more than sufficient.

DISCONTENT.

BY CELIA TRAXTER.

There is no day so dark But through the murky haze of hope Some blessed touch from Heaven that we Might feel.

We shut the portals fast, And turn the key and let no sunshine in, Yet the worst despair that comes through sin

God's light shall reach at last.
We slumber on our daily joy, Make much of vexations, thickly set Our path with thorns of discontent, and freed

At our fine gold's alloy.
Till bounte us Heaven might frown At such ingratitude, and turning lay On our impatience burdens that would weigh

Our aching shoulders down.
We shed too many tears,
And sigh too sore, and yield us up to woe, As if God had not planned the way we go And counted out our years.

Can we not be content,
And lift our foreheads from the ignoble dust
Of these complaining lives, and wait with trust,

Fulfilling Heaven's intent?
Must we have wealth and power, Fame, beauty, all things ordered to our mind?

Nay, all these things leave happiness behind!
Accept the sun and shower.
The humble joys that bless, Appealing to indifferent hearts and cold With delicate touch striving to reach and hold

Our hidden consciousness;
And see how everywhere Love comforts, strengthens, helps, and saves us all!

What opportunity of good befall To make life sweet and fair.

Resurrected—A Dead Communist Restored to Life.

There is quite a remarkable story in the London Globe, which purports to come from Paris, and relates to scientific operations there which reminds one of the stories of Edgar Poe. It is related that a German Professor begged two condemned Communists, named Dodu and Brun, from M. Thiers, in order that he might, as a scientific experiment, kill them and bring them to life again at the end of three months after death. His plan was to inject a solution of calx into the system, by which decomposition was to be prevented; and, according to this theory the patient might be revived, not only at the end of three months, but of three hundred years, according to desire. In the presence of medical men and public functionaries the Professor, having administered calx to each of the men, injected the solution and then bled them till they died. The corpses were then desiccated by the heat of the furnaces till they shriveled and till the skin became yellow like leather.

In this state they remained in a moderate temperature for the prescribed three months, and then the process of revivification began by injecting the blood of two healthy laborers and by the application of the galvanic battery. The process completely failed in the case of Dodu; but in the case of Brun the result was, to say the least, surprising. First, the opaque eye-balls rolled in their yellow sockets, the muscles began to twitch, the heart to beat; and, at last, after 14 hours of treatment, Brun spoke, rose from the table, swallowed a bowl of beef tea and several ounces of brandy, and audibly gumbled of soreness in his limbs and of pain in the regions that had rested on the table. He is said to have now awoke and well in Switzerland, under the assumed name of Fourie, while a post-mortem examination showed that a fatty degeneration of the heart had prevented the revival of Dodu. The attention of persons wishing to be revived is called to this circumstance, as showing them that heart disease is especially to be avoided by them.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The President on Louisiana Affairs—Speech of Judge Dubose—Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The President sent to the House of Representatives today, in answer to a resolution of that body of the 10th of December last, a Governor of Louisiana, furnished by Attorney General Williams. The papers embrace copies of the judicial proceedings, correspondence by mail and telegraph, memorials and other matter, nearly all of which have heretofore been before the public. The following telegram from General Emory, dated New Orleans, January 11th, to the Adjutant General's office, closes the correspondence: "As Mr. Kellogg has been declared, by Gov. Pinchbeck, as the Legislature which he recognizes, as the Governor elect of Louisiana, I presume it is intended by my instructions that I shall also recognize him, and shall accordingly do so unless otherwise instructed. I addressed letters to the General commanding the army on the 8th and 9th, but they may not reach in time for action. The situation is becoming more complicated, and in my opinion the use of the troops simply to keep the peace cannot lead to a satisfactory or permanent solution of the difficulties here."

The report of the Attorney General, alluded to by the President in his message, does not accompany the papers.
The speech of General Dubose Saturday, favoring Government aid in behalf of the Atlantic and Great Western Canal, attracts general attention. The burden of his argument was against the unconstitutionality of the aid which is being furnished to the work, and figures showing that the work was a national necessity.

The House adopted a resolution for an inquiry into the conduct of Judge Durell, of Louisiana, with a view to his impeachment. An animated discussion occurred in the House on a resolution offered by Sheldon, of Louisiana, for the appointment of a joint select committee on the Louisiana troubles. It was opposed by many of the leading members on both sides of the House and aided by others. Finally, a resolution was offered by Garfield, of Ohio, was adopted in its stead referring to the whole matter, with the message from the President thereon to the Judiciary Committee.

Inauguration of the Rival Governors of Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, January 13.—The inauguration ceremonies passed off quietly. The weather was clear and pleasant.
McEnery was inaugurated in Lafayette square. Several thousand persons were present, many of whom were ladies.
The ceremonies opened with prayer by Bishop Wilmer. A valedictory address, delivered by Bishop Piece, was followed by an inaugural address by McEnery.
The oath of office was then administered and the ceremonies concluded with benediction by Rev. J. K. Gret-helm.
Kellogg was inaugurated at Mechanics Institute, the doors of which are still guarded by United States soldiers.
The Senators repaired to the Hall of the House. Acting Governor Pinch-beck delivered a short valedictory, followed by Kellogg's inaugural, &c.— About fifteen hundred persons present.
Of these one-fourth were colored.
